Golden Kiwi

Golden kiwis are an emerging fruit—ushering in the next wave of tropical flavor. Sweeter and less tart than its green counterpart, golden kiwi delivers a taste reminiscent of mango with subtle berry undertones. Golden kiwi flavor shines in applications like smoothies, yogurt and ice cream, while bringing a vibrant twist to baked treats and cocktails. It can also add juicy burst of flavor to salsas, vinaigrettes, and marinades—balancing sweetness and acidity for a dynamic, modern tropical experience.
